Mr. Stevenson practices primarily in the areas of commercial litigation and bankruptcy and creditors’ rights. He also advises clients regarding the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. Mr. Stevenson is licensed in Texas and New Mexico and represents clients in both state and federal court.

Mr. Stevenson represents clients in commercial litigation and counsel’s clients in a variety of areas including construction matters, contract preparation and negotiation, contract disputes, real estate matters, residential and commercial landlord/tenant issues, creditors’ rights and bankruptcy matters, and claims regarding the transportation and carriage of goods. Such representation includes advising credit unions, banks, other financial institutions, transportation and logistics brokers, and other businesses, both domestic and international, with respect to issues related to their consumer and commercial collections accounts, including collection of deficiency balances, sequestrations, and foreclosures of real and personal property.

In addition, Mr. Stevenson helps property management companies and real estate developers collect delinquent accounts, resolve construction issues, and assists with evictions as well as the filing of mechanic’s and materialism’s liens and collection of amounts due on construction contracts.

Mr. Stevenson also counsels clients with respect to the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA), focusing on employer compliance and regulatory issues, including proactive business and insurance solutions, contractual issues, and implementation of employer procedural safeguards related to the ever-changing ACA landscape.

Mr. Stevenson was named a “Texas Rising Star” in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 by the Texas Super Lawyers and publishers of Texas Monthly and Law & Politics magazine. He is a member of the American Bar Association, El Paso Bar Association, Texas Association of Defense Counsel, Transportation Lawyers’ Association, and American Health Lawyers Association.

Regarding community engagement, Mr. Stevenson is actively involved with the ACTS ministries at St. Patrick’s Cathedral, El Paso Diocese. He is the current President of the El Paso Central Business Association and sits on the Parish Council of Sagrado Corazon Catholic Church in the Segundo Barrio of El Paso. In addition, Mr. Stevenson is a former member of the boards of directors for the El Paso Children’s Miracle Network, El Paso County Historical Society, and Creative Kids, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting art education and awareness.
